

CHRISTADELPHIAN

Christ in thee our name is found
In Thee we seek God's grace,
Our joy will be to see thee crowned,
We long to see thy face.

Heaven blest are we to know God's truth
Blest is His Word indeed,
We pray that more in age or youth
My feel this urgent need.

Righteous art Thou as God declared
Well pleased with Thee to be.
Thy righteousness by loved ones shared
May this our covering be.

In Thee we have a peace of mind,
Which this world cannot give,
In Thy example Lord we find
Instruction how to live.

Saved even now from many a snare,
In which the world takes pride,
Through thee we seek our God in prayer
His Holy Word our guide.

Trusting in Thy correction Lord,
We need thy helping hand,
Uplifted may we gain reward,
In thy strength Lord we stand.

And as a family in the fold,
May we united be,
Firm to the faith in this life hold
It's future joys to see.

Devotion means to firmly cling
Thus may our worship be,
Expressed in rapture as we sing,
Father in heaven to Thee.

Enlightened! May no darkness dwell
Within the heart and mind,
We have The Truth, let's share it well
In actions true and kind.

Love is the sweetest word we know,
An attribute Divine,
There's room in us for love to grow,
Jesus we think of thine.

Peace is indeed God's gift of love
As in Thy deeds expressed,
Prophet and Priest, King from above
May we by thee be Blest.

Hope seems not long to be deferred,
If we see signs aright.
By these our faith is bring stirred
Whilst watching for the light.

Intercession for our sake,
Proves love that never fails,
We hope the effort we each make
Will show how love prevails.

And of our faith this is the sum
Our God we know is true,
Our risen Lord will surely come
Jesus we welcome you.

Now may we all both watch and pray
Working with grace as well,
Not standing idle all the day,
We have good news to tell.
